ARTICLE 1: FUNCTION AND PURPOSE

Section 1: Function

The name of this organization will be the Department of Campus Recreation Advisory Council (RAC), which operates in partnership with the Associated Students of the University of Arizona (ASUA). The Campus Recreation Department, through full use of its personnel, both students and staff, facilities and services, will provide such facilities, programs and services as will (1) complement and supplement the academic mission of the University; (2) provide lifetime appreciation of and involvement in physical activity, recreational activities and healthy lifestyle choices; (3) encourage a commitment to be engaged in the community at large; (4) partner with academic departments or other non-academic and auxiliary departments where synergies exist; (5) assist our campus recreation users in developing the highest possible quality of life; (6) promote interpersonal development based upon appreciation of inclusiveness and diversity.

The Recreation Advisory Council serves as a liaison between Campus Recreation and the university community by facilitating discussion on how to achieve the mission and vision; how to continually improve facilities, programs and services; and advocating for the recreation, health and wellness needs of the campus community. Based upon these involvements the Recreation Advisory Council will initiate recommendations to Campus Recreation Administration and to campus constituencies on behalf of the Campus Recreation Department.

Section 2: Purpose

The Recreation Advisory Council (hereafter referred to as the R.A.C.) as established in cooperation with the Department of Campus Recreation administration will be involved in an advisory capacity for Campus Recreation facilities, programs and services. It will have the responsibility for reviewing long-range strategic plans and campus recreation program plans, budget and facility development and renovations for the Department of Campus Recreation. Furthermore, the R.A.C. will serve as a liaison and advocate for the Department and the recreation, health and wellness needs of the campus community.

ARTICLE 2: RECREATION ADVISORY COUNCIL (R.A.C.)

Section 1: Composition of the R.A.C.

12. One student member to be appointed from the Student Health and Wellness Fee Committee by the Chair of said committee.

Section 2: Appointment of a Student Chairperson

R.A.C. will consist of twelve (12) student voting members, one (1) faculty voting member, one (1) appointed personnel or classified staff voting member, and one (1) community voting member.

The Campus Recreation Director will facilitate the R.A.C. in discussing and voting on a student chairperson at the first meeting of the new academic year.

Section 3: Appointment of other student officials

The student chairperson will hold election during the first or second R.A.C. meeting to select the student Vice-Chairperson and Secretary.
Section 4: Voting Procedure

A simple majority of current voting members of the R.A.C. will constitute a quorum. The R.A.C. without a quorum present may take no action.

The student Chairperson shall only vote in the case of a tie. No member will vote by proxy. Robert's Rules of Order will be the official guide of the R.A.C. meetings.

Section 5: Vacancies

The student Chairperson and the Campus Recreation Director will work with the respective groups indicated above under R.A.C. membership to solicit members for vacant slots. If there are multiple candidates for a vacant position meeting the criteria of one vacant slot, the member may be chosen based upon suitable availability to attend meetings, ability to represent their constituents and interest/desire to serve.

Persons filling mid-term vacancies will serve out the balance of the term vacated.

Section 6: Recall/Remove

Any member of the R.A.C. and/or appointed subcommittees of the R.A.C. may be recalled upon a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the voting membership.

Grounds for removal/recall include missing multiple meetings with no excuse, disruptive or disrespectful behavior, violation of UA policy or Code of Ethics violations.

Section 7: Frequency of Meetings

The R.A.C. will meet on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday early evenings as determined by the members at the start of the semester.

Section 8: R.A.C. Bylaw Changes

The R.A.C. bylaws were established by the Campus Recreation Director in September of 1997 with ratification by the established R.A.C. Future revisions will follow a similar process with preference given to the R.A.C. reviewing bylaws annually, making revisions and ratifying with a 2/3 majority vote.

ARTICLE 3: RECREATION ADVISORY COUNCIL MEMBERS’ RESPONSIBILITIES

Section 1: Officers of the R.A.C.
