Chiricahua National Monument
Camp and Hike

Explore a “wonderland of rocks” at Chiricahua National Monument. The monument is located in southeastern Arizona. This unique mountain range is known for its extensive hoodoos and balancing rock formations.

Join us to camp under the stars and hike through towering boulders and whimsical rock gardens. The trip includes Massai Point, Echo Canyon and the Faraway Ranch.

Itinerary
Subject to change

Day One (afternoon):
- Meet at OR
- Head to Chiricahua
- Set up camp
- Make dinner

Day Two:
- Breakfast at 8 a.m.
- Pack lunches
- Hike to Maasai Point
- Drive to Echo canyon loop
- Hike Echo Canyon loop (stop for lunch)
- Head back to camp
- Make dinner

Day Three:
- Breakfast at 8 a.m.
- Pack up
- Check out visitor center
- Visit Faraway Ranch
- Drive back to Tucson

For more information, contact Outdoor Recreation at outdoorrec@arizona.edu or (520) 621-8233.